BOSTON by FOOT

WALKING TOURS OF BOSTON MAY THROUGH OCTOBER

Explore Boston in the finest style — by foot. Only as a walker can one fully experience the pleasures of cobblestone lanes and grand public plazas. Our volunteer guides, all graduates of the intensive Boston by Foot Training Course, will introduce you to some of Boston's most interesting buildings and monuments. The tours are one and one-half hours in length, and there is always time to investigate details and ask questions.

TOUR INFORMATION

Boston by Foot offers two regularly scheduled tours.

Tour 1: The Heart of the Hub. Meet on the plaza of "Where's Boston?", 60 State Street Faneuil Hall side.

Tour 2: Beacon Hill. Meet on the bottom steps of the State House on Beacon Street.

Both tours begin at the following times:

Tuesday 10:00 a.m.

Thursday 10:00 a.m.

Saturday 10:00 a.m.

Sunday 2:00 p.m.

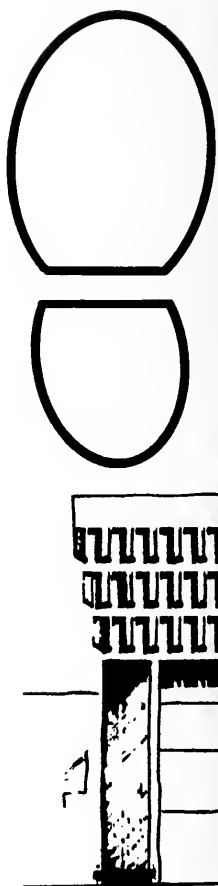

Tickets may be purchased from guide.

Fee for each tour: $2.00 per person, members free.

Length of each tour: one and one-half hours.

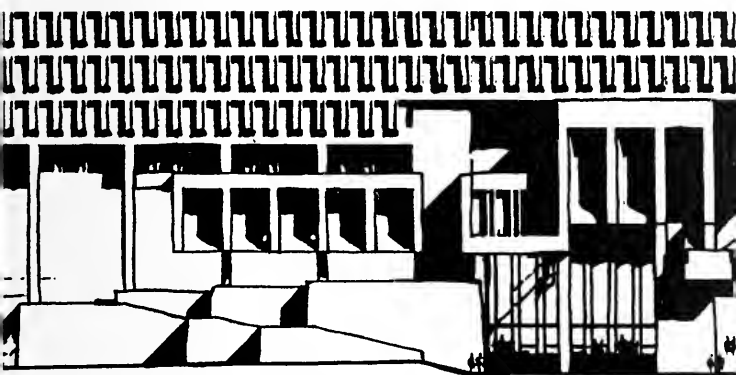

Reservations are requested for groups of over ten. Whenever possible, we will arrange special schedules.

For special scheduling and information on group tours call 617-367-2345.

TOUR 1: THE HEART OF THE HUB

This tour encompasses buildings and spaces in and around the Government Center. These sites, clustered within a pleasant distance for strolling, include some of America's most famous landmarks. You will visit the Old State House where the Declaration of Independence was first read in Boston; Faneuil Hall, "The Cradle of Liberty"; the prize winning new City Hall, the brilliantly restored Quincy Market, and others. Meet on the plaza of "Where's Boston?", 60 State Street Faneuil Hall side. Fee $2.00 per person, members free.

New City Hall: Gerhard Kallmann, Michael McKinnell, and Edward Knowles, Architects

TOUR 2: BEACON HILL

Beacon Hill with its inviting spaces, proud architecture and splendid examples of craftsmanship, remains one of the city's beloved neighborhoods. This harmonious collection of town houses offers examples of the major architectural styles of early nineteenth century America. From the golden dome of the Bulfinch State House to the cobbles of Acorn Street, the Beacon Hill walk enriches mind and spirit. Meet on the bottom steps of the State House on Beacon Street. Fee: $2.00 per person, members free.

CHILDREN'S TOUR: BOSTON BY LITTLE FEET

Walkers aged six through twelve are encouraged to experience architecture through seeing, touching, and talking about buildings on The Heart of the Hub Tour. Sundays at 2:00 p.m. Meet on the plaza of "Where's Boston?", 60 State Street the Faneuil Hall side. Fee: $1.00 per child, accompanying adults free and necessary. Reservations required for groups of over ten. For special group tours on weekdays call our Program Director at 367-2345.

A FOUR SESSION COURSE: THE LIFE AND WORK OF H. H. RICHARDSON

Henry Hobson Richardson, though not a Bostonian, left his mark on the city and its surrounding towns. Many of his churches, public buildings, and private residences survive and enrich the New England landscape.

A Senior Guide of Boston by Foot will lead a four session course on Richardson with walks in Boston, Cambridge, and North Easton. Sessions will be held on September 8, 15, and 22 from 2:00 - 3:30 P.M. and September 29 from 10:00 - 4:00 P.M. Tuition is $15.00 for members of Boston by Foot and $20.00 for non-members. For application information call 617-367-2345. Enrollment limited.
